Dear Valued Patients,

I hope this letter finds you and your loved ones in good health. It is with excitement that I write to you today. After several years of serving as an associate dentist at Dental Works Matthews, I am thrilled to announce that I have transitioned into the role of the practice's new owner.

First and foremost, I want to express my deepest gratitude to you for your reliable loyalty and friendship throughout the years. Your trust in our practice has been the foundation of our success, and it has been an absolute privilege to serve as your dentist.

The decision to transition into ownership was driven by a desire to further invest in our practice and community. I am committed to upholding the same high standards of care and service that you expect from us. Rest assured, our dedication to your oral health and overall well-being remains firm.

During this transition period, you may notice a change in the name of our office. We are excited to announce that we will be transitioning from Dental Works to More Dentistry. Despite this change, I want to reassure you that I will remain the same skilled and compassionate dentist you have come to trust. I am genuinely enthusiastic about continuing to serve as your dentist, and I am confident that you will continue to receive the exceptional care and attention to detail that you have grown accustomed to from us.

Your continued support during this transition means the world to us, and we are grateful for your understanding and loyalty as we embark on this new chapter as More Dentistry. I am confident that together we will thrive and continue to be a place where your oral health needs are met with the highest care and professionalism.

Thank you once again for your trust and support. I look forward to serving you as the new owner of More Dentistry.

Warmest regards,

Dr. More, DDS
